I have windows xp, and my CAT truck was made in 2005, and the author was gz0z. I have the patch installed but when I start the truck and it asks to register or license, my cat is expired and I can't register it, and when i press ok it goes to the next windows that says the version is wrong, and it has a red X with a white "!" in the bottom left corner. What do I do?. I have no Internet connection and don't know how to use the patch. May 27, 2019 - My cat is expired and it's already been 6 months since I last bought a license - It doesn't give me an option to download the latest patch What should I do? Nov 10, 2012 Read your post, but I'm having the same problem as you with 2012b, 2012a and 2011, not with 2008/10. If you have any suggestions, please send me a private message, I am pretty active on this forum. Oct 8, 2012 - sscottwoodwell I sent you a private message, but please read the rules for private messaging before you try to PM me (rules are in the About section of the forum) - As far as I know, Cat Enterprises has not released a crack for cat et 20 2012a or 2012b. If I recall correctly, and I may be wrong, all you can do is use the patch they released for 2011. - The good news is, they released this patch for all three 2011 versions (2008/10, 2011 and 2012b/2012a) - It's not available in their Windows site, or any of the Cat Engine Support forums. There's only one way to get it, is by finding the link I posted above, or by contacting me privately. Oct 9, 2012 - Maybe, it's not an issue with the 2011 version, but the 2012 versions. Maybe they forgot to release the patch for the 2012 versions. - The good news is, it's free. The bad news is, the patch is released only for the 2011 versions (2008/10 and 2011). May 26, 2019 - The 2012 versions might be for sale if they continue the same pricing for the 2011 version. Jun 18, 2019 - I managed to download the patch for the 2012 versions (2012a/b) - I managed to install 2d92ce491b
